25X1

1. The departure of troops from the forest camp at Letzling Heath (M 53/Y 53), which was expected to start on 25 September 1950, actually began on 26 September 1950.
2. On 26 September 1950 at noon a train with nine tanks coming from the barracks area of the Millersleben artillery range was sidetracked at the Haldensleben railroad station. Eighteen other tanks were loaded on a train in Millersleben where a makeshift loading ramp had been constructed for the purpose.
3. On 27 September 1950 about 40 trucks, about half of which towed 120-mm guns, and 3 light armored reconnaissance cars were loaded on a train at the Haldensleben railroad station.

that, upon completion of the fall maneuvers, at least some elements of the division may have returned to their summer quarters, probably only temporarily. A report received in the spring of 1950 stated that the camps in the woods at Letzling Heath would be occupied until some time in October 1950. [redacted]
